

Near Miss Report

Record an event with no actual injury or damage that could have caused harm. If harm occurred, link an incident report.

Company: _____ Home base: _____

Record no. _____ Record revision: _____ Date: _____

Site / lease / project: _____ Job / dispatch: _____

Location / LSD / address: _____

Event date / time / zone: _____ Reported date / time: _____

Reporter / role / contact or confidential reference: _____

Task / unit / equipment / people exposed: _____

What happened

Event sequence and how injury, damage or release was narrowly avoided:

Potential consequences and controls

Credible potential harm and who or what was exposed:

Potential severity / likelihood / company risk method: _____

Control that worked or failed; contributing conditions and evidence:

Immediate action

☐ Affected work paused ☐ Area isolated ☐ Temporary control ☐ Other: _____

Action taken / by whom / time: _____

Near Miss Report Review

Record no. _____ Event date: _____ Site: _____

Witnesses and evidence

Witness name or secure reference	Contact or statement ID	Interview date

Photo or evidence ID	Description and capture date	Original location or custodian

Attach photographs, sketches and statements with this record number. Preserve originals; distinguish firsthand accounts from reported information.

Contributing factors / preliminary causes and evidence; mark unconfirmed findings:

Corrective actions

Action and related finding	Owner	Due date	Verification or evidence

Notification and review

Notified person / agency / date / time / reference: _____

Reporting assessment owner: _____ Due: _____ Status: _____

External form / submission reference or reason not applicable: _____

Prepared by / signature / date: _____

Reviewed by / signature / date: _____

Closure verified by / date / evidence: _____

☐ Open ☐ Actions pending ☐ Closed Effectiveness review date: _____

Use N/A or unknown as appropriate. Link continuation pages. Preserve signed originals and track corrections. Signatures acknowledge preparation or review, not admission of fault.

Internal company template. Not an official OSHA, DOT, OHS or workers compensation form; assess applicable reporting and prescribed forms separately.